

ers and Red Rubber Union, L. A. 7,164; Brick Haulers' Union, L. A. 3,288; Cement and Lime Workers' Union, L. A. 42; Glass and Skylight Makers' Union, L. A. 8,401; and Progressive Painters' Union, L. A. 10,558.

All along the line of march the sides were thronged with people who applauded the men.

This afternoon the members of the association will continue the celebration in Purry's Central Hall on East Forty-seventh street. Dancing and merrymaking will continue until a late hour.

AFTER THE PARADE.

Where the Various Organizations Are Enjoying the Day.

The sellers who took part in the bug parades had individual plans for the continuation of the celebration of the holiday.

The Central Labor Union's picnic at Greenwich's pavilion, New Dorp, S. L. is the scene of the gathering of an immense throng of the paraders and their families, but there are a myriad of other Labor Day festivals, as well as special sports in all directions.

Local Union No. 163, Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators, accepted an invitation from Local 19 of Brooklyn, and is celebrating the day with that organization in the City of Churches in a picnic and a picnic.

The New York Central Labor Federation, instead of its usual parade is observing the day in a glee chorus and Forty-second street.

The Western District labor men are holding a picnic at the home of the 15,000 working men to take part in the demonstration.

The societies forming in the Federation parade assembled at the Labor Lyceum, at Myrtle Avenue and Myrtle Street, under the leadership of Grand Marshal Max Parker.

At 10 o'clock they were prepared to start and the word was given to "Forward" and the marchers went down Franklin street to Knickerbocker avenue, to Madison Avenue, Forty-fourth street and Amsterdam Avenue.

Forty-five labor organizations, fraternal societies and singing societies of all kinds on the programme at Fort Wadsworth, including dancing, from 2 o'clock this afternoon till everybody is tired out.

Among the Unions most numerous represented at this celebration is the Amalgamated Draughtsmen, Artists and Designers' Union, 14,000; Bakers and Confectioners' Union, 1,000; Cigar-makers' Union, 1,000; Tailors' and Cutters' Union, 1,000; Painters and Decorators' Union, 1,000; Printers' Union, No. 11, United Card Operators' Independent Bakers' Union, N. Y. 1,000; Bookbinders' Union Association; Carpenters' Union, No. 33; Machine Wood-Workers' Union, No. 33; Laborers' Union, No. 10; the International Union of Arrangements, composed of George H. McVey, Kenneth Bohm, A. Walther, L. L. Johnson and J. Rosen, Reception Committee; David J. Leicht, E. Klineke, G. Fisher, S. Weiss, J. Henker, G. Arnold and G. Winter.

Prof. Daniel De Leon was down for an addition to his experience during the past some of his experiences during the trip to Zurich, Switzerland, where he attended the International Labor Congress as delegate of the Socialists in the United States.

District Assembly 49, K. of L., had a grand seaside festival at Pelham's Beach Pavilion, Pelham Island, where thousands comprising its local assemblies went at early hour.

The members of the Operatic Painters' Society participated at their Labor Day celebration in Washington Park, Sixty-ninth street and Eastern Boulevard.

The Painters' Union went to Erbach's Morrisania Park, One Hundred and Seventeenth street and Third avenue, where its members organized a picnic with a large number shooting, prize bowling and all kinds of popular games for ladies and children.

The Knights of Machinists' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators' Union, L. A. 7,164;

Brick Haulers' Union, L. A. 3,288; Cement and Lime Workers' Union, L. A. 42; Glass and Skylight Makers' Union, L. A. 8,401; and Progressive Painters' Union, L. A. 10,558.

All along the line of march the sides were thronged with people who applauded the men.

This afternoon the members of the association will continue the celebration in Purry's Central Hall on East Forty-seventh street. Dancing and merrymaking will continue until a late hour.

AFTER THE PARADE.

Where the Various Organizations Are Enjoying the Day.

The sellers who took part in the bug parades had individual plans for the continuation of the celebration of the holiday.

The Central Labor Union's picnic at Greenwich's pavilion, New Dorp, S. L. is the scene of the gathering of an immense throng of the paraders and their families, but there are a myriad of other Labor Day festivals, as well as special sports in all directions.

Local Union No. 163, Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators, accepted an invitation from Local 19 of Brooklyn, and is celebrating the day with that organization in the City of Churches in a picnic and a picnic.

The New York Central Labor Federation, instead of its usual parade is observing the day in a glee chorus and Forty-second street.

The Western District labor men are holding a picnic at the home of the 15,000 working men to take part in the demonstration.

The societies forming in the Federation parade assembled at the Labor Lyceum, at Myrtle Avenue and Myrtle Street, under the leadership of Grand Marshal Max Parker.

At 10 o'clock they were prepared to start and the word was given to "Forward" and the marchers went down Franklin street to Knickerbocker avenue, to Madison Avenue, Forty-fourth street and Amsterdam Avenue.

Forty-five labor organizations, fraternal societies and singing societies of all kinds on the programme at Fort Wadsworth, including dancing, from 2 o'clock this afternoon till everybody is tired out.

Among the Unions most numerous represented at this celebration is the Amalgamated Draughtsmen, Artists and Designers' Union, 1,000; Bakers and Confectioners' Union, 1,000; Cigar-makers' Union, 1,000; Tailors' and Cutters' Union, 1,000; Painters and Decorators' Union, 1,000; Printers' Union, No. 11, United Card Operators' Independent Bakers' Union, N. Y. 1,000; Bookbinders' Union Association; Carpenters' Union, No. 33; Machine Wood-Workers' Union, No. 33; Laborers' Union, No. 10; the International Union of Arrangements, composed of George H. McVey, Kenneth Bohm, A. Walther, L. L. Johnson and J. Rosen, Reception Committee; David J. Leicht, E. Klineke, G. Fisher, S. Weiss, J. Henker, G. Arnold and G. Winter.

Prof. Daniel De Leon was down for an addition to his experience during the past some of his experiences during the trip to Zurich, Switzerland, where he attended the International Labor Congress as delegate of the Socialists in the United States.

District Assembly 49, K. of L., had a grand seaside festival at Pelham's Beach Pavilion, Pelham Island, where thousands comprising its local assemblies went at early hour.

The members of the Operatic Painters' Society participated at their Labor Day celebration in Washington Park, Sixty-ninth street and Eastern Boulevard.

The Painters' Union went to Erbach's Morrisania Park, One Hundred and Seventeenth street and Third avenue, where its members organized a picnic with a large number shooting, prize bowling and all kinds of popular games for ladies and children.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.

The Knights of Laborers' Unions have their Labor Day picnic at Homewood's Park, in Ridgewood, L. I.

The Yorkville Branch of the Workmen's General Union also took a large and varied excursion to Freshwater Park, in College Point, L. I.

The Windfall Branch of the Workingmen's General Union is celebrating Labor Day at Arnold's Schuetzen Park, in Windfall, L. I., where target shooting and games are being introduced.